3. DALE CHESTER BROWNE, a primary associate of UBALDO RIVERA-COLON, was responsible for the security, transportation, storage and sale of cocaine possessed by the organization.

Overt Acts

COLON with more than 200 kilograms of cocaine between 1987 and 1991. The cocaine was delivered to UBALDO RIVERA-COLON in Puerto Rico.

2. In late 1991 or early 1992, a second co-conspirator (CC2), an active drug dealer was introduced to UBALDO RIVERA-COLON at Luis Muñoz Marín airport in San Juan. UBALDO RIVERA-COLON informed CC2 that he (RIVERA-COLON) was involved in drug trafficking and was supplied cocaine by a man known as "TUTIN." Shortly thereafter, CC2 began to work for RIVERA-COLON'S organization by storing cocaine in different locations in Puerto Rico and keeping track of financial accounts.

3. Later in 1992, UBALDO RIVERA-COLON introduced the CC2 to DALE CHESTER BROWNE and other members of the organization. UBALDO RIVERA-COLON identified DALE CHESTER BROWNE as a member of the drug dealing organization.

5. In or about February 1993, UBALDO RIVERA-COLON purchased a "stash house" in the Ponce area for about $180,000. The house was purchased with cash and the value of two cars. Although the property was purchased by UBALDO RIVERA-COLON, the property was placed in the name of RIVERA-COLON'S father. For use in protecting cocaine and cash stored at the house, UBALDO RIVERA-COLON supplied firearms including an AR-15 assault rifle, an Ingram

6. In April 1993, CC3 contacted a member of UBALDO RIVERA-COLON'S drug dealing organization Jorge Hernandez a/k/a "El Cubano" and arranged to purchase an additional 10 kilograms of cocaine from UBALDO RIVERA-COLON. CC3 paid $13,000 per kilogram for the cocaine and delivered the cash to UBALDO RIVERA-COLON. The cocaine was delivered by DALE CHESTER BROWNE to the parking lot of an auto stereo center in Puerto Rico. Hernandez was later shot five times and killed.

7. In July 1993, UBALDO RIVERA-COLON traveled with DALE CHESTER BROWNE and other members of their organization to the Dominican Republic for the purpose of arranging the transportation of cocaine from Colombia through the Dominican Republic and into Puerto Rico.

8. In the fall of 1994, a fourth co-conspirator (CC4) was present at a drug deal where UBALDO RIVERA-COLON sold between 25-40 kilograms of cocaine to a fifth co-conspirator (CC5). The deal took place in a mechanic shop in Guaynabo.
